

COLLABORATION BETWEEN

LLOYD INSTITUTE

and

DELHI PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCE & RESEARCH UNIVERSITY (DPSRU)

We are proud to announce that Lloyd Institute and Delhi Pharmaceutical Science & Research University, New Delhi entered into a collaboration on the occasion of Annual APTI Convention (APTICON) on 24th March, 2018, which was hosted by Lloyd.

With this LLOYD HAS BECOME THE ONLY PHARMACY INSTITUTE IN INDIA to officially collaborate with the only University in India established specifically for Pharmaceutical Sciences. The objective of the MoU is pursuing academic excellence, research and faculty development.

The Collaboration was signed by Dr. Vandana Arora, Group Director, Lloyd Group of Institutions and Dr. Raman Dang, Registrar (DPSRU). The signing and exchange of the agreement was witnessed by senior pharmacy professionals like Dr. S. Eswara Reddy, Drugs Controller General of India (DCGI), Prof. P C Dandiya, Prof. R. K. Goyal, Vice Chancellor, DPSRU, Shri S. L. Nasa, Registrar, Delhi Pharmacy Council, Mr. Atul Kumar Nasa, Deputy Drugs Controller, Govt. of NCT of Delhi and Shri Manohar Thairani, President, Lloyd Group of Institutions.

This is a recognition of the excellence that Lloyd has achieved over the years and will go a long way to benefit students, faculty and society at large.
