ABOUT THE LLOYD

Lloyd Institute of Management & Technology (Pharm.) was established in the year 2004. Lloyd sincerely believes in the Holistic development of the students with emphasis on scholastic growth along with co-curricular activities. For students we have Skill Development Program Improved Orientation towards Industry Practices.

B. Pharm. Program of Lloyd Institute of Management & Technology (Pharm.) is NBA Accredited for three years. This means that B. Pharm program offers the highest quality education available.

The advantages of NBA accreditation to students include enhanced chances of career success. One of the biggest NBA accreditation benefits is that more companies will find it advantageous to take part in your college's placement programs. Students armed with quality education passing out of accredited colleges are more likely to find appropriate employment.
